Initiative Description

If passed this law shall deny the possibility of parole to persons convicted of a felony of a sexual or violent nature. They will have to serve out the full length of their sentence.

The Violent Offenders Law

It shall henceforth be the law of the State of Arizona that all persons duly convicted of a felony of a violent and or sexual nature shall serve the full term of the sentence imposed by the court without the possibility of receiving parole; except in cases where there is a successful appeal or upon exoneration as the result of new evidence.

violent and or sex offenders as defined in sections k and m.

L. All inmates whom have been duly convicted of an offence classified as violent or sexual in nature, as defined in section M, shall automatically be considered ineligible for parole until the full completion of their sentence.

M. For the purposes of this section a "violent offender" means an inmate hat used either physical force, weapons or any object used to inflict bodily harm, in the commission of a crime. A "sex offender" means any inmate convicted of a crime that would require them to register as a sex offender as defined in section 13-3821 of the Arizona criminal code.
